Pre State Title Coaching Program THIS IS FOR COMPETENT SABOT SAILORS

Sabot Sailors

This year the Southern NSW Sabot Training Committee has organised 4 days of training early in the season, lead by our head coach Rob Brewer, to help you prepare for the State Title Regatta and National Selection series.

The days are

Sunday 12th September

Sunday 19th September

Sunday 17th October

Saturday 6th November

This coaching is aimed at competent sabot sailors, 1up AND 2ups, wanting to improve their boat handling skills prior to the State Titles and will be especially relevant to those sailors who are planning on going to the National Titles in Tasmania.

This coaching will be run from Vaucluse (Gibson's Beach) so as to best replicate the conditions that may be experienced sailing the States (Toronto, Lake Macquarie and Vaucluse) and Nationals (Wynard, Bass Straight).

Training will commence at 9.00am sharp each morning and it is expected that the boats will be fully rigged and sailors dressed by this time. The days' training is anticipated to finish at 4.00 pm each day.

The Association has once again decided to subsidise ALL training this season. Due to this subsidy however the Association will be unable to provide refunds regardless of the circumstances.

The cost of the coaching program (per boat) is $100.00 for the 4 days. Part payment is not possible as the coaches are arranged for a group and will be paid regardless of the entrants attending. The full payment, by cheque, must accompany the attached Entry Form.

Entries for the Pre State Title Coaching Program need to be with the Coaching Committee by August 29th, 2010.

Entries received after the closing date may be accepted Double the rate ie $200 per boat may apply.

To ensure the safety of all entrants and maintain the quality of coaching – NO beach entries will be accepted,

The SNSW Sabot Association needs to know the final numbers so that coaches and patrol boats can be arranged BEFORE the pre state title coaching commences.

PROHIBITED EMPLOYMENT DECLARATION

CHILD PROTECTION (PROHIBITED EMPLOYMENT) ACT 1998

The Child Protection (Prohibited Employment) Act 1998 makes it an offence for a person convicted of a serious sex offence (a Prohibited Person) or a Registrable Person under the Child Protection (Offenders Registration) Act 2000, to apply for, undertake or remain in, child-related employment. It does not apply if an order, from the Industrial Relations Commission or the Administrative Decisions Tribunal or the Commission for Children and Young People, declares that the Act does not apply to a person in respect of a specific offence.

Section 5 of the Child Protection (Prohibited Employment) Act 1998 defines a serious sex offence as:

- an offence involving sexual activity or acts of indecency that was committed in NSW and that was punishable by penal servitude or imprisonment for 12 months or more, even if the sentence was not served; or
- an offence involving sexual activity or acts of indecency that was committed elsewhere and that would have been punishable by penal servitude or imprisonment for 12 months or more if it had been committed in NSW; or
- an offence under Sections 91D-91G (other than if committed by a child prostitute) and 578B or 578C(2A) of the Crimes Act 1900 or a similar offence under a law other than a law of NSW; or
- an offence of attempting, or of conspiracy or incitement, to commit an offence referred to in the preceding paragraphs; or
- any other offence prescribed by the regulations.

Note: A conviction for carnal knowledge is classified as a serious sex offence under this legislation.

Child-related employment means any employment, where at least one of the essential duties of the position, involves direct contact with children where that contact is not directly supervised.

Section 3 of the Child Protection (Prohibited Employment) Act 1998 specifies that child-related employment is employment:

- involving the provision of child protection services;
- in pre-schools, kindergartens and child care centres (inc.-- residential child care centres);
- in schools or other educational institutions (not including universities);
- in detention centres (within the meaning of the Children (Detention Centres) Act 1987);
- in refuges used by children;
- in wards of public or private hospitals in which children are patients;
- in clubs, associations or movements (including of a cultural, recreational or sporting nature) having a significant child membership;
- in any religious organisation;
- in any entertainment venues where the clientele is primarily children;
- as a babysitter or childminder that is arranged by a commercial agency;
- involving fostering or other child care;
- involving regular provision of taxi services for the transport of children with a disability;
- involving the private tuition of children;
- involving the direct provision of health services;
- involving the provision of counselling or other support services for children;
- on school buses;
- at overnight camps for children;
- any other prescribed by regulation.

Under this Act:

- it is an offence for a Prohibited Person to apply for, undertake or remain in child related employment;
- employers must ask existing employees, both paid and unpaid, and preferred applicants for employment to declare if they are a Prohibited Person or not;
- all child-related employees must inform their employers if they are a Prohibited Person or remove themselves from child-related employment. A Prohibited Person is someone who has been convicted of a serious sexual offence or, who has had a finding for a charge of a serious sexual offence proven in court, even if a conviction was not recorded;
- penalties are imposed for non compliance.
